 - ii. Any member of the Association and any constituent university may propose any motion or topic for discussion which comes within the purview of the Association provided that notice of such motion is sent not less than eight weeks before the date of the annual meeting. The Ministries and Departments of the Central and State Governments and the diplomatic, cultural or educational departments of foreign missions in India may also refer for consideration by the Association such items as they deem desirable.
 - iii. Matters of current business and routine shall be disposed of. If any question arises as to whether any particular question is one of current business and routine it shall be decided by the President.
 - iv. Reports and communications from the Governing Council shall be submitted for consideration.
 - v. The President shall have the powers, when he considers that the meeting has been unduly prolonged, to order an incomplete business to stand over till the next meeting.
 - vi. The order of business will ordinarily be not changed, except with the approval of the house.
6. Business at Meetings
- At the annual meeting of the Association, only the member Universities and the representatives of the Ministries and Departments of the Government, who have given notice of items for consideration, shall be present. The members of the Association alone shall have the right of voting.

At the annual meeting, the Association shall consider the items given notice of by members, and by the Ministries and Departments of the Government and other recognised bodies, the annual report, the audited statement of accounts, the budget estimates for the following financial year and such other subjects as may be brought forward by the Governing Council or by the President of the Association.

THE GOVERNING COUNCIL

7 Governing Council

The business of the Association shall be managed by a Governing Council which shall frame suitable bye-laws for the purpose. These bye-laws shall come into force as soon as they are made. However, they shall be reported at the next annual General Body meeting of the Association which may affirm, alter or disapprove of them.

8 Composition of Governing Council

The Governing Council shall be composed of the following members of the Association:

- A. Ex-officio Members
 - i. The President
 - ii. The Vice-President
 - iii. The immediate past President
 - iv. The Secretary General
- B. Zonal Members
 - i. There shall be five zones, namely, North, South, East, Central and West, and the assignment of institutions to the zones would be made by the Governing Council.
 - ii. There shall be 15 zonal members: three from each of the five zones of the country. Of the three members from each zone, two shall be selected by rotation on the basis of seniority of service of the Vice-Chancellors/ Directors and the third on the basis of the seniority of the university/organisation in the zone concerned in a rotational order.

Explanation:

Seniority: The Seniority of a member for holding any office in the Association shall be determined by computing the entire duration for which the member has been a Vice-Chancellor/Director provided that during that period the institution concerned has been a member of the Association.

Institutional Seniority The seniority of the university shall be determined from the date the said institution became member of the AIU.

C. Co-opted Members

- i. The President will co-opt two members for the duration of his tenure of office.
- ii. The Governing Council will co-opt two members for a period of two years.

Explanation

1. As in the case of the Rajya Sabha, Co-options shall be so arranged that one member shall retire each year and, furthermore, if any casual vacancy occurs it shall be filled for the residual period only.
2. While co-opting persons on the Governing Council an attempt will be made to give representation to interests and points of view which are not otherwise represented on the Governing Council.
- b. ~~deleted.~~
- c. Representation on the Governing Council given to a Vice-Chancellor on the basis of the seniority of the university shall continue to be available to that university for a period of two years from the date it is given and whoever is the Vice-Chancellor will represent that university on the Governing Council.
- d. In case of a vacancy caused by a member having ceased to be a Vice-Chancellor/Director the person next to him on the list of seniority shall ipso-facto become a member of the Governing Council and his tenure of membership shall be for a period of two years from the date that the outgoing member went out of office.
- e. If a Vice-Chancellor becomes a member of the Governing Council on the basis of his individual seniority he shall continue to be a member for full term of two years provided he continues to hold that office. During his tenure if his university becomes entitled to institutional membership the university would have the right deferred till such time as a fresh vacancy arises and instead the next senior-most university would earn the membership.
- f. Except in the case of the President, the Vice-President, the immediate past President and co-opted members, no person shall be entitled to be a member of the Governing Council again unless a period of two years has elapsed from the date he last ceased to be a member.
- g. Once a Vice-Chancellor becomes a member of the Governing Council whether in his individual or institutional capacity, his category of membership on the committee will not be changed.
- h. In case of doubt about the membership in any category, the matter will be referred by the Secretary General to the President and his decision shall be final.

9. Term of office of Members of the Governing Council

- i. The term of institutional members shall be reckoned for two years with effect from. 1st July every alternate year.
- ii. The term of the President, the Vice-President and the immediate past President shall be one year corresponding to the academic year, subject to their basic membership of the as Vice Chancellor/Director.

10. Meetings of the Governing Council

A.

- i. There will atleast be four ordinary meeting of the Governing Council in a academic year, one meeting in every quarter.
- ii. Extraordinary meeting of the Governing Council may be called by the President to transact urgent business at 7 days' notice.
- iii. A requisitioned meeting of the Governing Council shall be held within two weeks, on receipt of a requisition signed by at least five members of the Governing Council stating the business for which the meeting is requisitioned.

The time, date and place of such meetings shall be fixed by the Secretary General in consultation with the President.

B. Notice of the Meeting

- i. Ordinarily three weeks' notice of the meeting shall be given by the Secretary General to all members. The agenda will be circulated at least 7 days before the meeting.
- ii. In emergency cases, a shorter notice shall be allowed at the discretion of the President but in no case it shall be less than 7 days.
- iii. A notice may be served on a member either personally through an employee of the Association or by Speed Post/Registered Post/e-mail.

C. Quorum

- i. The Quorum of the meeting will be seven.
- ii. If a meeting of the Governing Council is adjourned for want of quorum, the Governing Council shall meet at the same place on the same day half an hour afterwards or as announced by the President and shall transact only the business on the agenda of the adjourned meeting. This shall not apply in the case of the requisitioned meeting which shall not be held if there is no quorum.
- iii. Minutes of the Governing Council be circulated to its members within three week from the date of Meeting of the Governing Council.

10. Functions of the Governing Council

- i. The Governing Council shall be the Executive Body of the Association. It shall exercise all powers which are not specifically reserved for the General Body and shall be the final authority for taking decisions in regard to them.
- ii. However, issues which have a bearing on educational policies as and when decided by the Governing Council would be reported to the General Body. The Governing Council itself will decide which issues have policy implications. If sometimes the Governing Council omits to do so, a decision regarding this matter should be taken by the President/Secretary General and the matter reported to the Governing Council.

Chapter 5
GRATUITY RULES

Title applicability of these rules

1.a. These rules shall be called 'AIU GRATUITY RULES' and shall come into force with effect from the 10th July, 1975. The existing employees shall be deemed to have been covered by these rules from the commencement of their service in the AIU so far as accrual of benefits under these rules are concerned.

Provided so far as gratuity contribution as provided in Rule IV (b) is concerned, it shall be recoverable in all the existing (as on 1.4.1974) 'deputation cases' from the dates of their proceedings on deputation.

1.b. These rules shall also apply to the Secretary General subject to 'proviso' under 2(iv).

Definitions

2. i. Continuous Service

An employee shall be deemed to be rendering continuous service for the purposes of these rules so long as:

a. he holds or retains lien on any permanent post in the Association;

or

b. no break in his service in the AIU occurs if he is a temporary employee; or

c. gratuity, leave salary and provident fund contributions (including interest due thereon for delayed payments) are paid to the Association in respect of its employees on deputation or on 'foreign service' elsewhere.

ii. Emoluments:

Emoluments for the purpose of these rules in respect of an employee shall mean:

The basic pay of the employee in a regular time-scale attached to the post in the Association.

Provided, however, that, in the case of employees who were appointed in AIU and confirmed prior to 20.12.91 'emoluments' for the purpose of these rules, shall mean:

The basic pay of the employee in a regular time scale attached to the post in the Association and the dearness allowance drawn by the employee.

However, all allowance of reimbursery nature e.g. special allowance for any special nature of work, house-rent allowance, conveyance allowance, city compensatory allowance, cash allowance, overtime allowance, active duty allowance, children education allowance, permanent travelling allowance, charge allowance etc. or any other amount personal to that employee shall not be taken into account for the purposes of these rules.

Provided that in the case of an employee officiating in a higher post in the Association, benefit of officiating basic pay and qualifying allowances attached thereto in respect of such higher post held by him on the date of his demise or on the date of his quitting service of the Association would be given if he had officiated in such higher post for a continuous qualifying period of not less than two years. Further, if such an employee has non-intermittently officiated in more than one higher post in the Association for a continuous qualifying total period of not less than two years, notional basic pay and qualifying allowances attached thereto in respect of any one of such higher posts in the Association in which he rendered maximum period of continuous qualifying service will be taken into consideration.

iii. Temporary Employee

An employee who :

- a. does not hold lien on any permanent post in the Association; or
- b. is appointed by the Association under any scheme or project entrusted to it for execution;

shall be a "temporary employee" for the purposes of these rules.

iv. Qualifying Service

Qualifying Service means:

- a. i. Continuous period of duty in or against a permanent post held substantively in the Association
- ii. One half of the continuous period of duty as "temporary employee" if it is followed by continuous qualifying service of less than 3 years in a substantive appointment on a permanent post in the Association.
- iii. entire continuous period of duty as temporary employee if:
 - a. it is either followed by continuous qualifying service exceeding 3 years in a substantive appointment on a permanent post in the Association.
 - b. or is not less than the periods stipulated in proviso (iv) and (v) under Rule 3.

[Note: The gratuity contribution payable for any month under these rules, shall be paid within fifteen days of the end of such month failing which an interest at 12% p.a.(rounded off to the nearest rupee) shall have to be paid to count the concerned period as qualifying service.

- b. Periods spent on 'foreign service or 'deputation' with any other organisation provided gratuity contribution at 11% of his basic pay (rounded off to the nearest rupee) in the borrowing office is either paid by the concerned employee or by his borrowing office in the 'AIU Gratuity Fund' for all such periods;
- c. All periods of casual leave, quarantine leave, disability leave and forced leave, etc. which are otherwise treated as duty under service rules;
- d. Regular leave, study leave and maternity leave (not more than twice during the entire service in the Association) generally in conformity with the rules of the Government of India, as may be sanctioned by the Association;
- e. Extraordinary leave subject to the Rule 4C.

Provided however that in case of the Secretary General, no period of qualifying service would be necessary.

Note: 1. In case of employees of the Association proceeding on leave as envisaged in clauses (c) to (e) above while on foreign service/deputation' with other organisation, gratuity contribution shall continue to be paid according to clause (b) above even for these leave periods.

2. Gazetted holidays and sanctioned restricted holidays at any of the ends of any spell of qualifying service shall also count as qualifying service.

v. Month

Month, for the purposes of these rules, shall commence on the date on which the occasion to count such period occurs and shall end in the succeeding month on the date preceding the date of the previous month on which such occasions to count the period arose:

Provided that if such an occasion arose in any case in the afternoon, the month shall commence on the next date and shall correspondingly end in the succeeding month accordingly.

Example: 'A' assumed charge on the afternoon of 10 Feb.1974. The month will commence on 11 Feb. 1974 and end on 10th March, 1974.

Provided where two or more spells partly consist of days and total of days of all spells exceeding 26 days, each period of 26 days would be counted as one month.

vi. Year

Year for the purposes of these rules shall commence on the date on which the occasion to count such period occurs and shall end in the succeeding year on the date preceding the date on which the occasion to count such period arose:

Provided that if such an occasion arose in any case in the afternoon, the year shall commence on the next date and shall correspondingly end in the succeeding year accordingly.

Example: 'A' assumed charge on the afternoon of 10th Feb.,1974. The year will commence on 11th Feb., 1974 and end on 10th Feb., 1975:

Provided where two or more spells consist of months and the total of months of all such spells exceeds 12 months, each period of 12 months would be counted as one year.

Who gets the Gratuity

3. All the employees of the Association who after the enforcement of these rules:
- quit the service of the Association for reasons other than misconduct, misdemeanor, inefficiency or imposition of penalty according to rules by competent authority; or
 - expire while in the service of the Association:

shall be entitled to benefit under these rules.
Provided -

- no regular permanent employee who has not put in continuous and qualifying period of service which would entitle him to payment of Association's full share of contribution to his provident fund a/c; or
- no employee who is on 'foreign service' term with the Association; or
- no temporary employee who himself quits the service of the Association before putting in qualifying service of 5 years; or
- no employee who is on 'deputation' with the Association; or
- no employee who is appointed to fill a leave vacancy; or
- no temporary employee who has to quit the service of the Association before completing qualifying service of 4 years because his post is abolished or his services are terminated as a measure of economy or because he is declared surplus; or
- no employee who is appointed on part time basis or on ad-hoc basis; shall be entitled to any benefit under these rules except as specifically provided in rules 5 hereinafter.

Creation of Gratuity Fund

- 4.i. To meet the liability under this scheme, the Association shall create 'AIU Gratuity Fund' and to it shall be credited:
- every month 1% of salary bill (rounded off to nearest rupee);
 - all gratuity contributions (including interest due thereon for delayed payments) recovered in respect of employees of the Association on deputation or foreign service elsewhere;
 - an employee on extra-ordinary leave could get that leave period counted as 'qualifying service' by paying 2% of his basic pay drawn by him provided the payment is made within one month of rejoining duty on the expiry of the leave; and
 - interest earned on deposits made from the AIU Gratuity Fund.
- ii. The amounts in 'AIU Gratuity Fund' may be placed in separate account or invested in long-term deposits with a nationalised bank.

Entitlement

5. Strictly subject to all the limitations laid in the provisions of these rules:
- every regular permanent employee on quitting service of the Association shall be paid a gratuity equal to 1/8th of his emoluments for every completed three months of his continuous qualifying service. Emoluments would be calculated by dividing monthly salary by 26 and consequently each month would consist of 26 days.
 - in case of death of a regular permanent employee while in service of the Association, the gratuity shall be paid to his nominee entitled to receive balance in his provident fund account and such gratuity shall not be less than the amount arrived at by multiplying his emoluments by the completed number of years of continuous qualifying service; and
 - in case of the temporary employees of the Association their gratuity entitlement in the circumstances as envisaged in rule 5(i) and (ii) above, shall be only 50% of the amount of the gratuity determined under rule 5(i) and (ii) above.

Provided that in no case the total amount of gratuity under these rules shall exceed 16½ times of his emoluments or Rs.3.50 lacs whichever is less.

Note: The gratuity so calculated shall be rounded to nearest rupee.

Death Gratuity

6. Death Gratuity is admissible in the case of death in service of an employee at the following rates:

Length of Service	Rate of Gratuity
i. Less than one year	2 times of emoluments
ii. One year or more but less than 5 years	6 times of emoluments
iii. 5 years or more but less than 20 years	12 times of emoluments
iv. 20 years or more	Half of emoluments for every completed 6 monthly period of qualifying service subject to a maximum of 33 times emoluments provided that the amount of Death Gratuity shall in no case exceed Rs. 3.50 lacs whichever is less

Gratuity Fund Trustees

7. The funds shall vest in a Board of Ex-Officio trustees consisting of the Chairman, the Secretary General and one of the Deputy Secretaries nominated by the Chairman. In case of any dispute or difference of opinion, concurrence of at-least two trustees is essential.

Who to Sanction 8. The gratuity under these rules shall finally be sanctioned by the Chairman on the eligibility report from Finance Division and on the recommendations of the Trustees.

Bank Accounts 9. The Bank a/c of the Gratuity Fund, shall, as usual, be operated by the Secretary General of the AIU.

 - ii. The member may, in his nomination, distribute the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund amongst his nominees at his own discretion so as to cover the whole amount.
 - iii. Any nomination made under clause (i) may at any time be modified by a member after giving a written notice to the Association of the intention to do so provided that when a member has a family he shall not be entitled to make any such modification in favour of a person who is not a member of his family.
21. If any person who shall have been nominated by the member shall at the time of his nomination be a minor or under disability to give a legal receipt or discharge to the trustees, the member must at the same time of such nomination as aforesaid appoint a person of full age who is capable of giving a legal receipt and discharge and to whom the amount standing to the credit of the members to be paid for behalf of the person so nominated as aforesaid so long as he shall be a minor, or under disability and the receipts of the said person of full page in respect of a payment made to him during the minority or disability of the person so nominated as aforesaid shall be a good discharge to the trustees.
22. The full amount standing to the credit shall be payable immediately on retirement on attaining the age of superannuation, death, or total invalidation. The full amount of credit shall become payable in the case of discharge on account of any retrenchment or transfer of the office which prevents the incumbent from continuing in service.
23. On the death of a member the full amount standing to his credit in the fund irrespective of the period for which the member may have served, after making any deduction authorised, shall become payable as under:
 - I. When the member leaves a family:
 - A. If a nomination made by a member in accordance with these provisions in favour of a person or persons belonging to his family subsists the amount as stated above or the part thereof to which the nomination relates shall become payable to the nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination.
 - B. If no such nomination in favour of a person or persons belonging to the family of the member subsists or if such nomination relates only to a part of the amount standing to his credit in the fund, the whole amount or part thereof to which the nomination does not relate, as the case may be shall, notwithstanding any nomination purporting to be in favour of any person or persons other than a person belonging to his family, become payable to the persons belonging to his family, according to the rights under the personal law applicable to the member.

Provided that no share be payable to:

- i. sons who have attained majority; and
 - ii. married daughters whose husbands are alive; if there is any member of the family alive other than those specified in clauses (i) and (ii).
- II. When the member leaves no family
- A. If the nomination made by him in accordance with these provisions in favour of any person or persons subsists, the amount as stated above or the part thereof to which the nomination relates shall become payable of his nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination.
 - B. If no nomination is made in accordance with these provisions subsists, the amount as stated above shall become payable to the person or persons entitled under law to the same in the death of the member.
- III. Any person claiming payment of a part or whole of the amount standing to the credit of a member, shall prove, to the satisfaction of the Association, his identity as a nominee or his right to claim the same (as an heir of the members or a member of his family) and shall produce if required, probate, letters of administration or a succession certificate to prove his claims.
24. In the event of any member failing to appoint a nominee (and if necessary a person to receive on behalf of the nominee), the amount to the credit or due to the credit of such member shall at his death lapse absolutely to the Fund, provided that it shall be in the discretion of the trustees to grant the whole or any part of such amount to the execution or administrators of such deceased member or to any relative or dependent of such deceased member whose circumstances appear to the trustees to warrant concession
