Message from the Executive Secretary

It gives me great joy to extend my heartfelt greetings to all participants, organizers, and guests attending the AIU's 39th Inter-University South-West Zone Youth Festival, "YUVOTSAVA", being hosted at JSS Academy of Higher Education and Research (JSS AHER), Mysuru, under the esteemed banner of the Association of Indian Universities (AIU), New Delhi, from 9th to 13th February 2026.

This festival marks a remarkable gathering where cultures, creativity, and youthful spirit come together on one vibrant platform. Events of this nature not only showcase the diverse artistic traditions from across our region but also strengthen the bonds of harmony, collaboration, and mutual respect within the academic fraternity.

The South-West Zone Youth Festival has always been a symbol of unity in diversity, reflecting the cultural richness embedded in our universities. More than a mere display of performances, it celebrates the shared passion, innovation, and collective energy that drive our student community.

As we witness the artistic excellence and cultural vibrancy of our youth, it is important to recognize the profound role such festivals play in shaping well-rounded individuals. These gatherings encourage intellectual growth, emotional maturity, and a deeper understanding of the beauty that lies in our varied identities.

I extend my appreciation to the organizing team of JSS AHER, Mysuru, for their relentless dedication in creating an event of such scale and significance. Your efforts in ensuring a meaningful and memorable experience for all are truly commendable.

To the participants, your enthusiasm breathes life into this celebration. I encourage you to take pride in presenting your cultural uniqueness and to engage wholeheartedly with the diverse talents around you. May this festival broaden your horizons and gift you friendships and memories that last a lifetime.

On behalf of JSS Mahavidyapeetha, Mysuru, I warmly welcome each one of you to the JSS AHER campus. I convey my best wishes for the resounding success of the AIU's 39th Inter-University South-West Zone Youth Festival "YUVOTSAVA". May this event stand as a tribute to creativity, unity, and the cultural heritage that enriches our nation.

Message from the Pro Chancellor

It is with great delight that I welcome all distinguished guests, enthusiastic participants, and the committed faculty and students to the AIU's 39th Inter-University South-West Zone Youth Festival "YUVOTSAVA", hosted by JSS Academy of Higher Education and Research, Mysuru. This dynamic cultural gathering stands as a proud moment for our institution, and I extend my heartfelt appreciation to the organising team for their meticulous planning and dedication in bringing this festival to life.

Youth festivals of this stature represent far more than artistic performances—they are living expressions of India's shared heritage. They weave together an extraordinary blend of traditions, languages, art forms, and ideas, offering a wonderful space for young minds to learn from one another beyond academic boundaries. Such events reaffirm that education is enriched when culture, creativity, and collaboration walk hand in hand.

The South-West Zone Youth Festival symbolizes harmony in diversity, bringing together students from different universities to celebrate their cultural identities while forging bonds that transcend geographical distances. Whether it is through music, dance, theatre, literature, or folk arts, each performance reflects the depth and vibrancy of our country's cultural mosaic. I encourage every participant to embrace this opportunity wholeheartedly—with enthusiasm, openness, and pride in representing your roots.

To our organising committee, your commitment to excellence deserves special recognition. Your sustained efforts ensure that this festival becomes an unforgettable experience for everyone involved. I am confident that the days ahead will witness remarkable talent, spirited participation, and meaningful exchanges that will leave a lasting impact on all who attend.

I also extend sincere thanks to the Association of Indian Universities (AIU), New Delhi, for entrusting JSS AHER, Mysuru, with the privilege of hosting this prestigious event. Your continued support inspires us to uphold the vision of nurturing holistic growth in our students.

Let us come together to create moments of joy, learning, and camaraderie that will remain etched in our memories for years to come. I wish each participant great success and hope that "YUVOTSAVA" becomes a celebration that truly honours the cultural brilliance of our nation.

Warm wishes for a vibrant and successful AIU's 39th Inter-University South-West Zone Youth Festival. May this event shine as a beacon of unity, talent, and youthful spirit.

Message from the Vice Chancellor

It is with profound pride and heartfelt warmth that I welcome all participants, delegates, invited guests, and members of the academic community to the AIU's 39th Inter-University South-West Zone Youth Festival 'YUVOTSAVA', being hosted by JSS Academy of Higher Education and Research, Mysuru, under the Association of Indian Universities (AIU), New Delhi.

Hosting this esteemed cultural festival is a moment of great honour for our institution. YUVOTSAVA brings together the youthful vibrancy, artistic excellence, and cultural depth of universities across the South-West Zone. It offers a unique and invaluable platform where creativity flourishes, friendships are formed, and the spirit of unity is celebrated in its truest essence.

Such festivals play a crucial role in shaping well-rounded individuals. They encourage students to explore their talents, appreciate the diversity of our nation, and grow through meaningful cultural interactions. Whether through music, dance, theatre, literature, or visual arts, each contribution enriches the collective experience and reflects the strength of our cultural heritage.

I extend my deep appreciation to the organising committee of JSS AHER for their dedication, vision, and relentless hard work in preparing for this grand event. Their efforts ensure an environment that is welcoming, inspiring, and conducive to high-quality performances and healthy competition.

To all participants: this festival belongs to you. Embrace every moment—perform with passion, engage with openness, and learn from the vast array of traditions and talents present here. May your time at JSS AHER be filled with joy, inspiration, and memories that will remain with you for years to come.

I also express sincere gratitude to AIU for granting us the privilege of hosting this prestigious youth festival. Your support strengthens our commitment to nurturing cultural growth and academic excellence.

As we come together for YUVOTSAVA 2026, let us celebrate the harmony that diversity brings and the transformative power of our shared cultural heritage.

My best wishes to everyone for a memorable, enriching, and highly successful Inter-University South-West Zone Youth Festival.

MESSAGE

Greetings from AIU!

AIU's Inter University Youth Festivals (UNIFESTs) serve as a vibrant platform for the expression of creativity, talent and innovation among our young minds. It is a time when the energy and enthusiasm of the youth take center stage, showcasing the incredible potential that resides within each one of you. This festival is not merely an event; it is a testament to the vitality and dynamism that characterize our young student's community. AIU has been annually organizing the Inter-University Youth Festivals (UNIFEST's) at the zonal and national levels, where a large number of youth artists from member universities and affiliated colleges participate.

It provides an opportunity to celebrate Bharat's rich cultural diversity, fostering a sense of unity and understanding among students from various backgrounds. The festival offers a stage for the artists to showcase their creative skills, encouraging a culture of appreciation and support for one another's unique abilities.

This year, the AIU's 39th Inter-University South West Zone Youth Festival (UNIFEST) is being hosted by the JSS Academy of Higher Education and Research, Mysuru. I encourage all the participants to actively participate in the Youth Festival. Embrace the spirit of collaboration, support fellow students, and take pride in being part of AIU's Youth Affairs community that values creativity, diversity and growth.

I send herewith my congratulations to the Vice Chancellor, and best wishes to the organizing team, volunteers of the host University and participants from the South West Zone member universities. I wish you all a joyous and successful Youth Festival Experience!

Please join us for the AIU's 39th Inter-University South West Zone Youth Festival (UNIFEST) hosted by JSS Academy of Higher Education and Research, Mysuru, Karnataka from 9th to 13th February 2026. This celebration of youth creativity and leadership is more than just a festival; it's a transformative experience designed to foster holistic development and cultivate the leaders of tomorrow.

At AIU's UNIFEST, we are committed to nurturing personality traits, promoting active citizenship, and instilling essential human and cultural values. This dynamic platform offers young minds an opportunity for meaningful interaction, encouraging them to explore their artistic, literary, and cultural talents while deepening their appreciation for Bharat's rich cultural heritage.

Through engaging activities and competitions, participants will develop essential skills in collaboration, empathy, and leadership. Together, we will promote a spirit of unity, fraternity, and peace, preparing our youth to navigate an increasingly complex world.

As we gather in the beautiful setting of Mysuru let us celebrate not just talent but the vibrant diversity that unites us. I extend my heartfelt wishes to all participants, the host university and the organizing team. May this festival inspire each one of you to contribute positively to society and carry forward the legacy of our rich cultural tapestry. Let's embark on this incredible journey together, shaping a brighter future for our students.

May the festival be a radiant celebration of joy, a canvas of boundless creativity, and a keepsake of unforgettable moments!

Message from the Registrar

It is with immense pleasure and profound pride that I extend a heartfelt welcome to all participants, officials, guests, and well-wishers attending the 39th Inter-University South-West Zone Youth Festival, 'YUVOTSAVA'.

JSS Academy of Higher Education & Research (JSS AHER), Mysuru, is deeply honored to host this prestigious event under the esteemed aegis of the Association of Indian Universities (AIU), New Delhi.

This festival marks a momentous occasion for our university. By bringing together talented students from diverse institutions, we celebrate culture, nurture talent, and channel the vibrant energy of youth. Events like YUVOTSAVA powerfully demonstrate that education extends far beyond academic learning; it thrives equally in creativity, collaboration, and cultural exchange.

The South-West Zone Youth Festival serves as an exceptional platform for young performers to showcase their abilities, gain new perspectives, and build lasting connections. Every performance and every tradition shared contributes to a dynamic environment of mutual respect and learning, strengthening the academic and cultural fabric of our institutions.

I express my sincere appreciation to the Organizing Committee and the dedicated teams at JSS AHER. Their meticulous planning and coordinated efforts ensure that participants experience a festival that is well-managed, inclusive, and memorable.

To all the participating students: I encourage you to seize this opportunity. Compete with integrity, express yourselves with confidence, and embrace the diversity that surrounds you. May your time at JSS AHER be filled with meaningful experiences, new friendships, and moments of profound joy.

We are grateful to the AIU for entrusting us with the privilege of hosting this event, reinforcing our resolve to foster holistic development among students.

As we celebrate YUVOTSAVA 2026, let us uphold the values of unity, creativity, and mutual respect that define this festival. I wish each participant and every team tremendous success and an enriching cultural journey.

Warm regards and best wishes for a vibrant and successful South-West Zone Youth Festival.

Message from the Organizing Secretary

It is an immense honor and a distinct privilege to welcome you—our esteemed participants, delegates, guests, and supportive well-wishers—to the AIU's 39th Inter-University South-West Zone Youth Festival, 'YUVOTSAVA'.

As the Organizing Secretary and Dean (Academics) of JSS Academy of Higher Education & Research (JSS AHER), Mysuru, I am delighted that we have the opportunity to host this prestigious cultural confluence under the guidance of the Association of Indian Universities (AIU), New Delhi.

For days, the JSS AHER campus will transform into a vibrant epicenter of artistic expression and intellectual exchange. This festival is a celebration of the holistic development we champion in higher education, acknowledging that creativity, collaboration, and cultural literacy are just as vital as academic performance.

The Organizing Committee has worked tirelessly and with great passion to ensure a seamless, stimulating, and fair competitive environment. We have meticulously planned every detail to offer you an experience that is culturally rich, operationally sound, and truly memorable.

To the young talents gathered here: I encourage you to step onto this stage with confidence, learn from your peers, and wholeheartedly embrace the spirit of sportsmanship and mutual respect. May you not only compete successfully but also forge new bonds that transcend institutional boundaries.

My deepest gratitude goes to the leadership of JSS Mahavidyapeeta, JSS AHER for their unwavering support, and to the AIU for entrusting us with the responsibility of hosting this zonal festival.

We look forward to witnessing your brilliance and creativity. May YUVOTSAVA 2026 be a journey of discovery, joy, and artistic triumph for all.

ABOUT ASSOCIATION OF INDIAN UNIVERSITIES (AIU)

The Association of Indian Universities is an Apex Advisory Body on Higher Education mandated by the Ministry of Education, to determine the equivalence of foreign degrees and conduct Youth Affairs & Sports Activities in Higher Education Sector in India. At present, AIU has about 985 member universities (central, Institute of National Importance, state and private universities), including 16 overseas universities, and is serving the Higher Education Sector for the last 98 years. Many national luminaries have served this organization in different capacities, and the most prominent examples are Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, Dr. Zakir Hussain, and Dr. Syama Prasad Mukherjee who have served as Presidents of AIU.

The organization has worked as an intellectual resource of the country and has contributed to the policy processes of the government and its agencies. AIU has been annually organizing the Inter-University Youth Festivals (UNIFESTS) since 1985 at the Zonal and National level where a large number of youth artistes from member universities and it's about 45000 affiliated colleges participate.

These festivals play a significant role in promoting in our youth, a pride of Indian culture and an awareness of youth identity. AIU is the only nodal agency in the entire country for organizing the inter-university youth programs for about 39 million youth students of the Higher Education Sector in India. Also, this is the only establishment where the above-cited youth programs can be conceptualized and implemented for the students the zonal, national, as well as international level. In continuation of our endeavors and addition to the above-mentioned youth festivals, the AIU has launched the organization of Asian University Youth Festival (AUFEST), International Youth Festival, National Women Student Parliament, National Moot Court Competition, National Adventure/Tracking Camp and National Qawwali Competition etc. From the current session, AIU has earmarked the entire country in eight zones for the smooth conduct of Youth Affairs Programs.

CENTERS OF EXCELLENCE

About Yuvotsava

JSS AHER, Mysuru, invites you to experience a vibrant cultural spectacle as we proudly host the AIU's 39th Inter University South West Zone Youth Festival (YUVOTSAVA) 2026.

This event transcends a mere competition; it is a sincere and profound convergence—a celebration where the rich tapestry of regional diversity beautifully interweaves with the dynamic spirit of student Creativity. As leading universities from the South West Zone gather, our focus is on fostering an atmosphere of shared cultural joy and celebrating the deep, foundational roots of our collective heritage.

Set in the culturally rich heart of Mysuru, YUVOTSAVA is an unpretentious gathering where young artists meet, exchange narratives, and find common ground through the universal language of art. The festival is built upon the acknowledgment of the immense cultural wealth each participant brings, transforming our campus into a magnificent canvas of shared experiences and mutual respect.

Our core mission is threaded with inclusivity, warmth, and inspiration. We are dedicated to forging lasting connections and ensuring every participant has their moment to shine. The sincere goal of YUVOTSAVA is to cultivate a deep appreciation for our traditions, nurture boundless creativity, and instill in our youth a vital sense of unity and leadership that will echo long after the festival concludes.

From the nuanced artistry of classical music to the energetic authenticity of folk dances, and from the thoughtful exchanges in intellectual debates to the compelling narratives on the theatrical stage YUVOTSAVA is a genuine showcase of burgeoning talent and heartfelt cultural expression.

Join us in this simple yet powerful narrative where culture gracefully unfolds, inviting everyone to take part in the celebration of diversity, the honor of tradition, and the genuine beauty of creativity at the AIU's 39th Inter University South West Zone Youth Festival 2026!

- Only one entry per university is allowed.
- A maximum of 12 participants is permitted per team.
- The duration of the performance shall be between 8 to 10 minutes.
- Time allowed for stage setup, instrument arrangement, sound check, and overall readiness, as applicable, shall not exceed 5 minutes.
- A maximum of three accompanists is permitted. Accompanists may assist with props, technical cues, background narration, or effect creation. While they are expected to remain off-stage, they may be momentarily visible while performing these duties; however, they shall not be considered part of the performance. Their role remains purely supportive in nature.
- The performance must present a clear theme or message through dance, whether utilizing single dance form/style or a fusion of multiple dance forms/styles. The theme should be suitable for public viewing and preferably be youth-centric, nation-centric, or address social issues.
- Recorded music is allowed. However, participating teams are expected to exercise caution in the selection of songs to ensure that the essence and spirit of the Youth Festival are upheld and not compromised.
- Three copies of a brief note describing the theme must be submitted along with the entry form at the time of registration.
- Teams must bring or arrange their own props, if any.
- Choreography will be judged based on parameters such as theme and message clarity, choreography and creativity, synchronization and coordination, use of stage and props, costumes, and overall impact. Extra efforts to enhance visual appeal through set design will not be considered for marking.

Cultural Procession

- a. The Cultural Procession is an additional event, and the results/marks of the Cultural Procession/March Past (along with other events) will be counted toward the Overall Championship Trophy. All universities are encouraged to participate in the Cultural Procession with the same spirit as other competitive events. The contingents may represent the culture of any State, Region, or National Integrity/Culture as a whole. There will be two types of participation in the Cultural Procession:

- Introductory Participation : Universities not performing any activity in the Cultural Procession will be classified under “Introductory Participation.” Before the last performance (of the host team/ university), all participants under Introductory Participation will March together, and the Presenter/ Anchor will announce the names of the universities and their Vice Chancellors. The organizing university will collect this information in advance.

- Performance Participation (Demonstration / Performance of Cultural Troops) : The Presenter/Anchor will announce the name of the performing university at the time of entry into the Cultural Procession, along with a positive note and the name of the Vice Chancellor.
- b. The Cultural Procession will be organized on the inaugural day before the formal inaugural ceremony. Team Managers/Contingent In-charges must compulsorily deposit two flags of their respective university at the desk near the registration desk. The flags will be hoisted on poles before the procession begins. The ideal flag size is 6' x 4'.
- c. Participating teams are advised to bring local/regional costumes to reflect their culture during the Cultural Procession/March Past.
- d. The host university will provide flag poles to all contingents for carrying and displaying flags during the procession.
- e. The previous year's overall champion of the respective zonal festival will lead the procession, and the host university will be last.
- f. The sequence of the remaining teams will be in alphabetical order.
- g. The procession route can be 1–2 km long or more, depending on the space available at the host university. A stage/performance area will be provided at one point (towards the end) for teams to showcase their cultural performance for 3–5 minutes for Zonal Youth Festivals and 2-3 minutes for National Youth Festival.
- h. The procession will start with the “Flag Off” ceremony.
- i. Judgment of performances will begin from the start of the procession and continue until it is officially declared finished.
- j. Participating universities may bring a university banner (not mandatory), preferably measuring 10' x 3', to be carried by the contingent during the procession.
- k. The host university will provide a PA system with three microphones and the provision for playing different recorded music/audio.
- l. Recorded music is allowed for Cultural Procession performances.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

ELIGIBILITY RULES

- Only bonafide, full-time students who are enrolled in a degree, postgraduate degree, or diploma course of a minimum duration of one academic year, and whose examination is conducted by the university or college affiliated to a university after passing the 12th class examination, are eligible to participate.
- Students of open universities shall be considered bonafide students and will be eligible to participate provided they fulfil the other conditions.
- Only students who are less than 25 years of age on the 1st of July of the current academic year can participate. There is no minimum age for participation.
- A student shall not be allowed to represent more than one university during a single academic year.
- Provisional admission to a course at a university or college shall not make a student eligible to represent that university.
- A student employed on a full-time basis shall not be eligible to participate.
- In the case of a student migrating from one university to another, the migration will be considered eligible only after the admission in the new university is regularized and the student is admitted as a bonafide student by the new university.
- AIU subscription fee is mandatory for participation in AIU Youth Affairs programmes by universities/institutions.

STRENGTH OF CONTINGENT

- The maximum strength of the contingent from each university can be 60, including 1 Dean/Director or equivalent representative, 2 Team Managers (preferably one male and one female), student participants, student accompanists, and professional accompanists. Universities having female participants are advised to mandatorily depute one female team manager.
- Universities may bring as many student and professional accompanists as required, based on their performance needs, provided the total contingent size does not exceed 60.
- Sharing of professional accompanists between universities is permitted. However, in such cases, the professional accompanist will be counted in both contingents, and applicable fees will be charged to both universities.

REPLACEMENT OF MEMBERS IN THE CONTINGENT FOR NATIONAL YOUTHFEST

- At maximum, 2 members of the contingent that represented a particular university at the zonal may be replaced under unforeseen circumstances. However, the replaced member will not be eligible to participate in any solo Events.

IDENTITY CARD

- Participants should carry Identity Cards with photographs, signed by the appropriate authorities of their respective University.

UNIVERSITY FLAGS

- The contingent leader shall have to deposit his/her one University flags with the host University. They should also keep one university flag with them for the cultural procession.

TRAVELLING EXPENSES

- The participating University will have to bear the travelling expenses.

FOOD

- Meals shall be provided by the Host University, starting from lunch one day before the fest begins and continuing until breakfast the morning after the valedictory ceremony.

BOARDING & LODGING

- Free board and lodging will be provided to the participating teams during the Inter Zonal and National Youth Festivals.
- Participating university troupes may be accommodated as guests in student hostels, using common rooms, verandas, and similar spaces.
- Accommodation will be provided from the night one day before the start of the fest until the morning after the valedictory ceremony.

DISCIPLINE

- If the behaviour of any contingent is found to be contrary to the objectives of the festivals, the host University may take suitable action against the concerned members. An individual or team may be debarred from participating in future youth festivals for three years, with intimation to the AIU.
- No official or member of any University shall make press statements on controversial issues.
- Consumption of liquor or intoxication, eve-teasing, influencing adjudicators, and indecent behaviour inside the campus and venue are strictly prohibited. Violations of this clause will be subject to disciplinary action, which may include debarring the concerned University team or official from participation in Inter University Youth Activities for a period determined by the AIU Cultural Committee.

OTHER RULES/ADVISORIES PERTAINING TO ALL EVENTS

- Participants are strongly advised to avoid using any materials or props involving fire, inflammable substances, direct fuel, fireworks, arms, weapons, or any other items that may pose a danger to themselves, others, or the host university's infrastructure.
- If the use of such materials is essential for cultural or artistic expression, prior written approval must be obtained from the Host University well in advance. The Host University reserves the right to prohibit the use of any such materials if deemed unsafe or potentially harmful to their premises or attendees.
- This advisory is issued to promote safety and the smooth conduct of events and does not waive the safety obligations of participants or organizers.
- To promote creativity, Cultural Contingents are requested to present new cultural items as far as possible in all competitions of the festival.

DISQUALIFICATION FOR VIOLATION OF ELIGIBILITY RULES

- Disqualification of a participant on the grounds of ineligibility will result in the automatic disqualification of the university from the event(s) in which the particular student has participated.

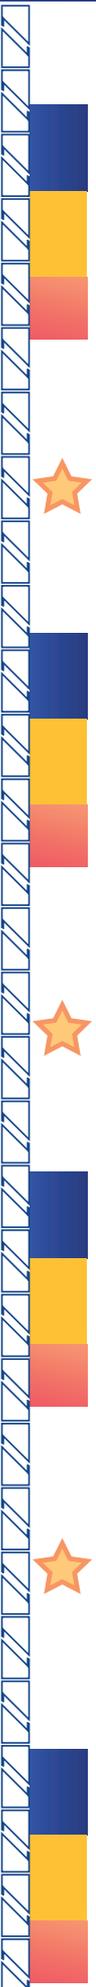

DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY

- Competitors participate in the Inter University Youth Festivals entirely at their own risk. Neither the host nor AIU will be responsible for any unfortunate circumstances.

JUDGMENT AND APPEALS

- The decision of the jury members appointed for different events shall be final and binding on all.
- It is expected that their judgment will be respected. In case of any dissatisfaction, the matter may be referred to the Jury of Appeals.
- The Protest, if any, should be lodged with the Organizing Secretary/Convener of the Competition within one hour of the end of the competition.
- No protest shall be entertained on matters regarding judgment.
- Protests can be entertained on matters related to violation of rules or improper conduct of the contest. There will be a protest fee of INR 1000/- (One thousand) only. This fee will not be refunded unless the protest has been upheld by the Jury of Appeals.
- No appeal shall lie against the decision of the Jury of Appeals.

Heritage City Mysuru

Places You Shouldn't Miss

Mysuru, often celebrated as Karnataka's cultural capital, is a city where history, art, and natural beauty come together seamlessly. Exploring Mysuru and its nearby attractions offers visitors a journey through royal grandeur, serene landscapes, and timeless architectural wonders. Here is a refreshed guide to some of the most captivating destinations in and around the city.

Mysore Palace

The iconic Mysore Palace is the heart of the city's heritage. A magnificent blend of Indo-Saracenic design, this royal residence mesmerizes visitors with its ornate interiors, detailed craftsmanship, and majestic courtyards. The palace becomes especially enchanting after dusk when thousands of bulbs illuminate its façade, creating a magical spectacle that defines Mysuru's charm.

Brindavan Gardens

Located just outside the city, Brindavan Gardens is a beautifully designed landscape of lush lawns, flowerbeds, and sparkling fountains. Spread across vast acres, the gardens are known for their evening musical fountain show, a delightful symphony of light, water, and sound that draws crowds every day.

Mysuru Zoo (Sri Chamarajendra Zoological Gardens)

A favourite among nature lovers, Mysuru Zoo is one of India's oldest and most respected zoological parks. It houses an impressive collection of species from around the world, including many rare and endangered animals. With its spacious enclosures and well-maintained surroundings, the zoo offers an enjoyable and educational experience for visitors of all ages.

Chamundi Hills

A visit to Mysuru is incomplete without experiencing the serenity of Chamundi Hills. Home to the revered Chamundeshwari Temple, the hill offers sweeping views of the entire city. The historic Nandi statue carved from a single rock, halfway up the hill, is another much-visited attraction. Whether you climb the steps or drive to the top, the journey is as rewarding as the view.

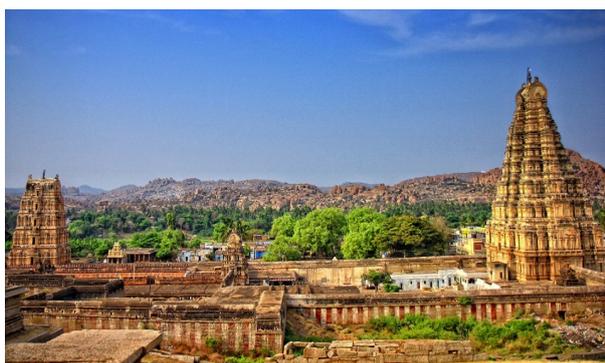

St. Philomena's Cathedral

This towering Gothic structure is one of the most striking landmarks in Mysuru. St. Philomena's Cathedral, with its soaring spires, intricate stained-glass artistry, and peaceful atmosphere, is a place where architecture and spirituality come together beautifully. It stands as a symbol of the city's cultural and religious harmony.

Somnathpur – Keshava Temple

Somnathpura is a World Heritage Site declared by UNESCO. About an hour from Mysuru lies the breathtaking Keshava Temple at Somnathpur, an architectural treasure from the Hoysala era. Renowned for its symmetrical layout and intricate carvings depicting mythological scenes, this temple stands as a testament to the artistic brilliance of ancient Karnataka.

Srirangapatna

A short drive away, the historic town of Srirangapatna unfolds tales from the era of Tipu Sultan. Set on an island formed by the Cauvery River, the town features remarkable landmarks such as Dariya Daulat Bagh (Tipu's Summer Palace), the Gumbaz Mausoleum, and Colonel Bailey's Dungeon. Each site reflects the region's rich military and cultural past.
